A. Introduction

This report is prepared by the Administrative Conference of the United States (ACUS) pursuant to the requirements of Title II, Section 203, of the Notification and Federal Employee Antidiscrimination and Retaliation Act of 2002 (No FEAR Act or Act). The Act requires federal agencies to submit an annual report to the Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives; the President Pro Tempore of the U.S. Senate; the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs; the House Committee on Oversight and Reform; the Senate Committee on the Judiciary; the House Committee on the Judiciary; the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission; the Attorney General; and the U.S. Office of Personnel Management.

This report contains data and analysis concerning equal employment opportunity (EEO) complaints activity at ACUS (only one such complaint for the current reporting year of FY 2019); and it reflects zero Federal court cases filed anew or pending from previous years. ACUS is 100% committed to maintaining an environment that provides equal employment opportunity to its total workforce of 12 full-time employees, as well as applicants for employment.

B. Federal Court Cases Arising under the Federal Antidiscrimination or Whistleblower Laws

1. As shown below in Table 1, ACUS had zero Federal Court Cases Pending or Resolved in FY 2019.

TABLE 1

2. Status or Disposition of Federal Court Cases Including the Amount of Money Required to be Reimbursed to the Judgement Fund and any Budget Adjustments Relating to the Judgement Fund.

Table 2 shows the status and disposition of federal court cases, by statute. However, since there were no federal court cases and no data to report, the numerical columns reflect the number zero.

D. Final Year-End No FEAR Act Data for FY 2019

Attached as Appendix 1 is ACUS’s final year-end No Fear Act Data for FY 2019.

E. ACUS’s Discipline Policy for Conduct Inconsistent with Federal Antidiscrimination or Whistleblower Laws

ACUS’s FY 2019 policy statement in support of this section is attached as Appendix 2. ACUS takes seriously its obligations to maintain a professional and antidiscriminatory environment for its employees. The agency’s annual policy statement is issued to current employees, new employees upon onboarding, and posted on its website to notify job applicants. Employees engaging in prohibited conduct may be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

F. Data Analysis

Introduction

This section is intended to provide data and trend analysis on the bases and issues in formal EEO complaints for FY 2018 and FY 2019. The bases protected by EEO statutes are race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, age, genetic information, and retaliation. Table 4 shows that in FY 2019, one employee filed one complaint.

TABLE 4
Number of Formal EEO Complaints and Number of Filers

Fiscal Year	Number of Complaints Filed	Number of Complainants	Repeat Filers
2019	1	1	0

1. Trends

No trends can be identified from the data. (Only one complaint, which was non-meritorious, was filed. Ultimately, the case was withdrawn. See Appendix 1 for additional context showing no other cases filed (except for the FY 2019 case) for the last five years.

2. Causal Analysis

The data does not permit any causal analysis.

3. Knowledge Gained

See above.

4. Actions Planned to Improve ACUS's Equal Employment Opportunity Program

ACUS will continue to educate its leaders and employees about the importance of EEO principles and requirements in order to maintain its mostly complaint-free history. ACUS also pledges to hold its entire workforce accountable for maintaining high standards in EEO.

G. No FEAR Act Training Plan

The No FEAR Act requires agencies to provide training for their employees on the rights and remedies under Federal antidiscrimination, retaliation, and whistleblower protection laws. New employees are required to complete interactive training on the No FEAR Act within the first week of their employment. The annual policy notice also serves as a training tool, as do EEO posters that are posted in frequently-accessed areas of the agency.

MEMORANDUM FOR ALL ACUS EMPLOYEES

October 1, 2019

FROM: Matthew L. Wiener, Vice Chairman and Executive Director

SUBJECT: Policy Statement on Equal Employment Opportunity, Non-Discrimination, Diversity, Harassment, and Whistleblower Protection; No FEAR Act Notice

Since the re-establishment of ACUS in 2010, this agency has maintained a clean record of non-discrimination, inclusiveness, and diversity in all of its activities and operations. I believe that the agency's staff has been diligent in observing and complying with the applicable laws and agency policy statements issued from time to time relating to these matters. The following information will serve as an official Policy Statement on Equal Employment Opportunity, Non-Discrimination, Diversity, Harassment, and Whistleblower Protection, as well as the annual notice required by the No FEAR Act of 2002, Pub. L. 107-174.

The Administrative Conference of the United States is committed to enforcing a zero-tolerance policy for any form of discrimination or harassment in the workplace, including physical, psychological or sexual harassment. Related to this commitment is a determination to seek diversity and to ensure the rights of employees under the federal whistleblower protection laws and policies that prohibit reprisals.

Every employee of ACUS is responsible for helping to ensure equal employment opportunity (EEO) and for complying with EEO laws and other federal policies to prevent discrimination, harassment, and reprisal. Each of us has a role in maintaining an environment of equal opportunity and must take personal responsibility for adhering to the principles that guarantee equal opportunity for all.

It is important that we always foster a culture of inclusion and respect at ACUS and promote an environment that embraces diversity. This agency is committed to providing and maintaining a work environment that is free from discrimination. This includes assurance of EEO for its employees and applicants without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, marital or parental status, protected genetic information, pregnancy, or political affiliation. This policy covers all persons and every facet of employment, including, but not limited to, recruitment and hiring, promotions, pay, benefits, assignments, evaluations, awards, training, career development, working conditions, discipline, and adverse actions.

Furthermore, our policy of non-discrimination is applicable to all aspects of employee behavior with respect to the membership of the Administrative Conference, the agency's consultants and contractors, employees of other federal agencies, and all other persons with whom we may interact in the course of carrying out the mission of this agency. ACUS takes allegations of discrimination, retaliation, and harassment seriously, and staff members are directed to carry out the agency's activities with the utmost fairness, integrity, and equality of opportunity. Any concerns regarding discrimination, harassment or retaliation should be brought to the attention of the Chairman and/or senior management.

No FEAR Act Notice

On May 15, 2002, Congress enacted the "Notification and Federal Employee Antidiscrimination and Retaliation Act of 2002" (No FEAR Act), 116 Stat. 566, Pub. L. 107-174 (5 U.S.C. § 2301 note). The Act is intended to hold Federal agencies accountable for violations of antidiscrimination and whistleblower protection laws. In support of this purpose, Congress found that "agencies cannot be run effectively if those agencies practice or tolerate discrimination." Sec. 101(1), Pub. L. 107-174. The Conference provides this No FEAR Act notice to inform its current employees, former employees, and applicants for employment of the rights and protections available under Federal antidiscrimination, whistleblower protection, and retaliation laws, as required by the Office of Personnel Management, 5 CFR § 724.202.

Antidiscrimination Laws

A Federal agency cannot discriminate against an employee or applicant with respect to the terms, conditions or privileges of employment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital status or political affiliation. Discrimination on these bases is prohibited by one or more of the following statutes: 5 U.S.C. § 2302(b) (1), 29 U.S.C. § 206(d), 29 U.S.C. § 631, 29 U.S.C. § 633a, 29 U.S.C. § 791, and 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-16.

If you believe that you have been the victim of unlawful discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin or disability, you must contact an Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) counselor within 45 calendar days of the alleged discriminatory action, or, in the case of a personnel action, within 45 calendar days of the effective date of the action, before you can file a formal complaint of discrimination with your agency. See, e.g., 29 CFR 1614. If you believe that you have been the victim of unlawful discrimination on the basis of age, you must either contact an EEO counselor as noted above or give notice of intent to sue to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) within 180 calendar days of the alleged discriminatory action.

Because the Conference is a very small agency, it has entered into an agreement with the General Services Administration (GSA) for EEO services, including, but not limited to, counseling and Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) services. EEO counselors are available by contacting GSA's EEO Office at their centralized intake hotline and mailbox. Email: eeo@gsa.gov.

Telephone: 202-501-4571. You may also file a written complaint of discrimination with that office.

If you are alleging discrimination based on marital status or political affiliation, you may file a written complaint with the U.S. Office of Special Counsel (OSC) (see contact information below). In the alternative (or in some cases, in addition), you may pursue a discrimination complaint by filing a grievance through the agency's administrative or negotiated grievance procedures, if such procedures apply and are available.

Whistleblower Protection Laws

A Federal employee with authority to take, direct others to take, recommend or approve any personnel action must not use that authority to take or fail to take, or threaten to take or fail to take, a personnel action against an employee or applicant because of disclosure of information by that individual that is reasonably believed to evidence violations of law, rule or regulation; gross mismanagement; gross waste of funds; an abuse of authority; or a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety, unless disclosure of such information is specifically prohibited by law and such information is specifically required by Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or the conduct of foreign affairs.

Retaliation against an employee or applicant for making a protected disclosure is prohibited by 5 U.S.C. § 2302(b)(8). If you believe that you have been the victim of whistleblower retaliation, you may file a written complaint (Form OSC-11) with the U.S. Office of Special Counsel at 1730 M Street NW, Suite 218, Washington, DC 20036-4505 or online through the OSC Web site: www.osc.gov.

Retaliation for Engaging in Protected Activity

A Federal agency cannot retaliate against an employee or applicant because that individual exercises his or her rights under any of the Federal antidiscrimination or whistleblower protection laws listed above. If you believe that you are the victim of retaliation for engaging in protected activity, you must follow, as appropriate, the procedures described in the Antidiscrimination Laws and Whistleblower Protection Laws sections or, if applicable, the administrative or negotiated grievance procedures in order to pursue any legal remedy.

Disciplinary Actions

Under the existing laws, each agency retains the right, where appropriate, to discipline a Federal employee for conduct that is inconsistent with Federal antidiscrimination and whistleblower protection laws, up to and including removal. If OSC has initiated an investigation under 5 U.S.C. § 1214, however, according to 5 U.S.C. § 1214(f), agencies must seek approval from the Special Counsel to discipline employees for, among other activities, engaging in prohibited retaliation. Nothing in the No FEAR Act alters existing laws or permits an agency to take unfounded disciplinary action against a Federal employee or to violate the procedural rights of a Federal employee who has been accused of discrimination.

Additional Information

For information regarding the No FEAR Act regulations, refer to 5 CFR 724, or contact the General Counsel's Office at the Conference, 1120 20th Street, NW, Suite 706 South, Washington, DC 20036, (202) 480-2080. Additional information regarding Federal antidiscrimination, whistleblower protection, and retaliation laws can be found at www.eeoc.gov and www.osc.gov.

Existing Rights Unchanged

Pursuant to section 205 of the No FEAR Act, neither the Act nor this notice creates, expands or reduces any rights otherwise available to any employee, former employee or applicant under the laws of the United States, including the provisions of law specified in 5 U.S.C. § 2302(d).
